Welcome to Bridgewater Sports Arena's Hockey Initiation Clinic. This clinic is designed to take players with basic skating skills and develop them in to hockey players!

What constitutes "basic skating skills"?

Players who have passed our Learn to Skate Hockey 2 (or have equivalent skills) and that have the confidence to move ahead at a quicker pace.

How is it a quicker pace?

Learn to Skate classes are great for beginners because they only skate for 30 minutes, once a week. But, as a hockey player gains confidence we increase the skating to 45-60 minute sessions, and twice a week.

What does the program cover?

When players are ready to enroll in Hockey Initiation they start in Level 1. Level 1 Hockey Initiation focuses on expanding basic skating skills and developing the player's balance, stride and agility. After each season the player is evaluated. If the player can pass all required elements of Level 1 they will proceed to Level 2.

What does Level 2 include?

Level 2 of the program is where we introduce the puck work required to play the game. This includes: puck possession, passing and shooting. All while still focused on developing the most important part of the game...skating!

When do they start playing games?

Right from the start. Every player is welcome to participate in Family Open Hockey. For a young player to really shine they need time to be creative, have fun and go on their own. Plus this allows family members an option to join in on the fun!

If we are ready for the program, what do I need?

Full hockey equipment is required. This includes:

Helmet, Shoulder Pads, Elbow Pads, Gloves, Hockey Pants (shorts), Athletic Protector, Shin Guards, Skates and a Stick.

We do offer free rental packages of equipment based on the size of the player and the availability of the equipment. Players may use the equipment while in the class but are encouraged to pick up their own equipment so that others may use the rental gear.

Does the rental gear include skates?

Yes, we have rental skates here, but players are encouraged to purchase a pair of skates for themselves.

How is the rental equipment cleaned?

BSA has partnered with ProFresh sports. ProFresh Sports offers a state-of-the-art ozone technology system that sanitizes the equipment, preventing harmful bacteria. Learn more at: www.ProFreshSports.com
